

Per KRS 205.8465

The identity of any person reporting Medicaid Fraud shall be considered confidential.

If the report is made in good faith, the reporting person will not be liable in any civil or criminal action based on the report.

No employer may discharge, discriminate or retaliate against a person who reports fraud in good faith, or who testifies or is about to testify about the fraud.

If an employer fires, discriminates or retaliates against a person reporting fraud, the reporting person may sue the employer in court for actual damages, costs and attorney's fees.

Any person who knows or has reasonable cause to believe that Medicaid provider fraud has occurred should report that information to the Attorney General's toll-free tipline at 1-877-ABUSE TIP (1-877-228-7384) or report online at www.ag.ky.gov.

With the increasing concern over the rising cost of health care, it becomes even more important to identify and prosecute those persons who are responsible for fraud in the delivery of health care services.

Office of Medicaid Fraud and Abuse

Daniel Cameron
ATTORNEY GENERAL

An important goal of the Office of the Attorney General's Office of Medicaid Fraud and Abuse is to ensure the financial integrity of the Kentucky Medical Assistance Program. Achievement of this goal is realized through the investigation and prosecution of healthcare providers who fraudulently bill or abuse the Medicaid system.

The Office of the Attorney General's Office of Medicaid Fraud and Abuse investigates Medicaid provider fraud.

A provider is any individual or business that supplies health care goods and services to Medicaid recipients.

Providers can be medical doctors, dentists, hospitals, nursing homes, pharmacies, durable medical equipment sellers, ambulance companies, taxis, or anyone else who bills the Medicaid Program.

A provider commits fraud by submitting false health care claims in order to obtain improper payment for Medicaid services. The end result is an increase in the cost to the Medicaid program that is passed along to you, the taxpayer.

Report suspected fraudulent activity to 1-877-ABUSE TIP (1-877-228-7384) or report online at www.ag.ky.gov.

Examples of Fraud

- Billing for medical services not actually performed
- Billing for a more expensive service than was actually rendered
- Billing for several services that should be combined into one billing
- Billing twice for the same medical service
- Dispensing generic drugs and billing for brand-name drugs
- Bribery
- Kickbacks: giving or accepting something in return for medical services
- Providing unnecessary services
- False cost reports
- Billing for ambulance runs when no medical service is provided
- Multiple passengers in an ambulance and separate billings submitted for each passenger
