4. The Solicitation and all attachments
5. Any Best and Final Offer.

III. Negotiated Items

Not Applicable.

IV. Pricing

The Commonwealth will have no obligation to advance or pay out of pocket any costs or litigation expenses associated with the assigned matter(s). Contractor agrees to advance all litigation costs incurred by its own attorneys and staff, including but not limited to travel, meals, mileage, lodging, and miscellaneous allowable expenses. If there is a recovery of money by the Commonwealth, at the conclusion of each matter the Commonwealth will reimburse the Contractor out of the recovery for reasonable expenses incurred directly in the prosecution and pursuit of the Commonwealth's claims, with approval of the OAG. Such reimbursement of costs will occur first from any recovery, and the contingent fee percentage will then be calculated and applied from the remainder of the recovery after the reimbursement of such costs and litigation expenses. A reasonable expense is defined as the cost that reflects the actions of a prudent person in the performance of a necessary service or act that is neither extreme nor excessive. Expenses shall be documented in a format requested by the OAG in order to be eligible for reimbursement, and OAG may limit the reimbursable amount of certain expenses, such as meals, flights or other charges not deemed reasonable. Additionally, Contractor agrees to advance costs of any, and all, expert witnesses, consultants, translation services, etc., as may be necessary in furtherance of Contractor's representation of the Commonwealth pursuant to this PSC. Contractor will consult with the OAG before employing any third-party expert witnesses, consultants or translators. The OAG shall have the final approval of the retention of any expert witnesses or consultants and any fee arrangements between Contractor and those individuals or entities.

Costs and litigation expenses incurred directly in the prosecution and pursuit of the Commonwealth's claims may include any or all of the following:

- 1.-Filing fees paid to a court;

	Document Phase	Document Description	Page 6

- 2.-Subpoena and witness fees;
- 3.-Deposition transcript expenses;
- 4.-Expert witness fees and expenses;
- 5.-Reasonable travel expenses;
- 6.-Reasonable and necessary expenses paid to document repositories, e-discovery or document vendors, trial consultants, and jury consultants.;
- 7.-Any other reasonable litigation expenses necessary to the pursuit of the Commonwealth's claims, subject to prior approval under the terms and conditions of the Contract.

The Office of the Attorney General shall not approve of or enter into any settlement unless the terms of such settlement require the total monetary recover be paid directly to the Commonwealth and deposited in the State Treasury in compliance with KRS 48.005(3). Contractor agrees any attorney fees and expense reimbursement owed under this Agreement shall be administered and disbursed by the Office of the Controller after the total monetary recovery has been deposited with the State Treasury.

The Commonwealth's obligation to pay attorneys' fees for the services described in the Contract is contingent upon a recovery by the Commonwealth. If the Commonwealth does not recover money in connection with Contractor's representation of the Commonwealth pursuant to this PSC, the Commonwealth will have no obligation to pay attorneys' fees or costs to the Contractor. If the Commonwealth does recover money, either through a monetary judgment or because of a settlement, Contractor shall be paid a contingency fee from monies collected in the amount provided by KRS 45A.717 as set forth below. However, if the Commonwealth obtains injunctive relief or other non-monetary consideration because of a judgment, the Commonwealth agrees that the Contractor may apply to the applicable court for any award of attorneys' fees if available or permitted by applicable law. If fees are awarded by the court in that event, the Contractor would then be entitled to the full amount of fees awarded by the court.

KRS 45A.717

(3) A contingency fee shall not exceed:

- (a) Twenty percent (20%) of the amount recovered up to ten million dollars ($10,000,000);
- (b) Fifteen percent (15%) of the amount recovered between ten million dollars ($10,000,000) and fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000);
- (c) Ten percent (10%) of the amount recovered between fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) and twenty million dollars ($20,000,000); and
- (d) Five percent (5%) of the amount recovered of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) or more.

2400004136	Draft	Legal Services-Complex Litigation Panel Counsel	Total Pages: 16

(4) A contingency fee shall not exceed twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), regardless of the number of actions or proceedings or the number of attorneys or law firms involved in the matter, and exclusive of any costs and expenses provided for by the contract and actually incurred by the legal services contractor.

(5) A contingency fee shall be payable only from money that is actually received pursuant to a judgment or settlement agreement, and any judgment or settlement funds shall be disbursed in accordance with KRS 48.005.

The Office of the Attorney General has determined that the contingency fee is both cost-effective and in the public interest. Further the Office has determined that sufficient and appropriate legal and financial resources do not exist within the Office to pursue the litigation without outside counsel. The Office anticipates that the amount of time and labor required to perform the requested services exceeds that available. In addition, the novelty, complexity, and difficulty of the assigned matter(s) are such that outside counsel is needed. The skill required to perform the requested services properly is of the highest level, and the geographic area where the legal services are to be provided will likely involve work in major metropolitan areas of the country. The Office has determined that experience in highly complex civil litigation involving multiple defendants is desired for the kind of legal services to be provided.

In the event that any or all of the claims for assigned matter(s) covered under this contract are resolved through individual settlement, multi-state settlement or a bankruptcy proceeding where provisions of the settlement or bankruptcy provide for the direct payment of fees and expenses of the Contractor, the Parties agree the provisions of any such settlement or bankruptcy shall be the exclusive source of payment for the claim(s) under this contract and waives the contingency fee provisions contained herein related to the claim(s).

V. Invoicing

Pursuant to KRS 45A.695, no payment shall be made on any personal service contract unless the individual, firm, partnership, or corporation awarded the personal service contract submits its invoice for payment on a form established by the committee.

*Invoice form is available on the Legislative Research Commission, Government Contract Review Committee website: <https://apps.legislature.ky.gov/moreinfo/Contracts/homepage.html>

At the conclusion of all actions and upon award or settlement and appeals of each assigned matter, or upon request by the OAG at any other time, the Contractor shall provide an invoice to the OAG, to include:

- 1.-Travel.
- 2.-Expert witness fees, court reporters and transcript costs, filing fees and;
- 3.-Other approved reasonable costs and expenses for which reimbursement is sought.

Itemized receipts are required based upon all expense types and dollar amounts.
