PERSONAL SERVICE CONTRACT FOR
PRESCRIPTION OPIOID PRODUCTS LITIGATION BETWEEN

THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

AND

MORGAN & MORGAN PLLC
Suite 1200, 333 West Vine Street
Lexington, KY 40507

This Personal Service Contract (PSC) is entered into, by and between the Commonwealth of Kentucky, Office of the Attorney General ("the Commonwealth" or "OAG") and Morgan & Morgan, PLLC, ("the Contractor") to establish a contract for Prescription Opioid Products Litigation. The initial PSC is effective from 7/1/2026 through 6/30/2028.

The Commonwealth and Contractor agree to the following:

I. Scope of Contract

Legal services include, but are not limited to:

Investigating, litigating and resolving claims against Walgreens Boots Alliance, Inc., (as well as any similarly situated defendants who have engaged in similar conduct) including any subsidiaries, partners, affiliates, contractors and subcontractors, predecessors, successors or parent entities, regarding its actions as a distributor, delivering opioids to its own pharmacies, and as a dispenser, filling prescriptions of opioids through its own pharmacies and delivering opioids to the ultimate consumers within the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Contractor shall assist in all phases of the investigation and litigation, including preparation of complaint(s), filing of complaint(s) and service of summons, responding to motions, including motions to dismiss; drafting and answering discovery propounded upon the Commonwealth or any of its agencies; tracking documents obtained in discovery; coordinating litigation with other states and the federal government to promote, to the extent beneficial, a unified approach to litigation; taking depositions; defending depositions noticed by the defendants; preparing relevant witnesses for depositions; responding to motions for summary judgment or other pretrial dispositive motions; identification of experts to testify in favor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky or other state agencies; preparation of expert witnesses for deposition or trial testimony; assessing the strength of legal arguments propounded by the litigants; preparation of legal arguments on motions; dealing with discovery disputes; representing the Commonwealth of Kentucky in trial or in any settlement negotiations that may occur; representing the Commonwealth of Kentucky in responding to post-trial motions; representing the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the appeal(s) of any judgment or verdict rendered in any such action(s) and, if applicable, the remand from appeal(s), and specifically with regard to and Defendant who declares bankruptcy, representing the Commonwealth in such bankruptcy matters, including appearing at hearings, soliciting discovery, negotiating with any relevant parties, filing proofs of claims and all other actions necessary to protect the interests of Kentucky.

The Office of the Attorney General has determined that the contingency fee is both cost-effective and in the public interest. Further the Office has determined that sufficient and appropriate legal and financial resources do not exist within the Office to pursue litigation without outside counsel.

The Office anticipates that the amount of time and labor required to perform the requested services exceeds that available. In addition, the novelty, complexity, and difficulty of the matter are such that outside counsel is needed. The skill required to perform the requested services properly is of the highest level, and the geographic area where the legal services are to be provided will likely involve work in major metropolitan areas of the country. The Office has determined that experience in highly complex civil litigation involving multiple defendants is desired for the particular kind of legal services to be provided.

II. Contract Components and Order of Precedence

The Commonwealth's acceptance of the Contractor's offer in response to the Solicitation, indicated by the issuance of a Contract Award shall create a valid contract between the Parties consisting of the following:

1. Procurement Statutes, Regulations and Policies
2. Any written Agreement between the Parties.

2600001672	Final	Morgan & Morgan	Total Pages: 17

(4) A contingency fee shall not exceed twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), regardless of the number of actions or proceedings or the number of attorneys or law firms involved in the matter, and exclusive of any costs and expenses provided for by the contract and actually incurred by the legal services contractor.

In the event that any or all of the claims covered under this contract are resolved through individual settlement, multi-state settlement or a bankruptcy proceeding where provisions of the settlement or bankruptcy provide for the direct payment of the fees and expenses of the Contractor, the Parties agree the provisions of any such settlement or bankruptcy shall be the exclusive source of payment for the claim(s) under this contract and waives the contingency fee provisions contained herein related to the claim(s).

V. Invoicing

The Contractor shall provide gross monetary recovery for deposit to the Commonwealth State Treasurer per KRS 48.005(3). Contractor shall attempt to recover all fees and costs directly and separately from Defendants in any action(s) initiated under this contract. If at the conclusion of all actions and upon award or settlement, Contractor is unable to recover fees and costs directly from Defendants, Contractor shall provide an invoice to the OAG for actual costs and expenses, travel performed in pursuit of Commonwealth recovery, expert witness fees, court reporters and transcript costs, filing fees and other approved reasonable costs and expenses.
