In re: Kurt Wallace/Bullitt County Attorney

Summary: The Bullitt County Attorney (“the County Attorney”) violated the Open Records Act (“the Act”), when it failed to issue a response to a request for records within five business days.

Open Records Decision

On May 30, 2025, Kurt Wallace (“Appellant”) submitted a 46-part request for records to the County Attorney. On June 27, 2025, having yet to receive a response, the Appellant initiated this appeal.

Under KRS 61.880(1), upon receiving a request for records under the Act, a public agency “shall determine within five (5) [business] days . . . after the receipt of any such request whether to comply with the request and shall notify in writing the person making the request, within the five (5) day period, of its decision.” Here, the Appellant submitted his request to the County Attorney on May 30, 2025, but had not received a response as of June 27, 2025. On appeal, the Fiscal Court states that the Appellant’s request “was inadvertently overlooked.” Thus, the Fiscal Court violated the Act when it failed to respond to the Appellant’s request within five business days.¹

A party aggrieved by this decision may appeal it by initiating an action in the appropriate circuit court under KRS 61.880(5) and KRS 61.882 within 30 days from the date of this decision. Under KRS 61.880(3), the Attorney General shall be notified of any action in circuit court, but shall not be named as a party in that action or in any subsequent proceedings. The Attorney General will accept notice of the complaint emailed to OAGAppeals@ky.gov.
